Show your community support and love of the outdoors at the 2nd Annual Black River Trash Bash! Before we begin the winter season it is important to clean-up our water ways, and especially the Black River.

The 2nd Annual Black River Trash Bash, organized by Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust, will be held Saturday, October 8, 2011 from 10am – 1pm. Participants should meet in the parking lot at the Water Works Park on Huntington St. in Watertown, NY. This is just one location along the Black River that will be cleaned up on Saturday.

Families and children are encouraged to attend! Volunteers will be provided with gloves, garbage bags, water and snacks. All you need to do is bring yourself and a can-do attitude. Please RSVP by contacting Janelle Castro at 315.779.2239 or email tughilloutreach@nnyemail.com.

Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust is a non-profit regional organization that works with private landowners to protect and foster responsible stewardship practices of working forest, farm, recreation and wild lands in northern New York's 2,100 square-mile Tug Hill region. The Tug Hill region covers parts of Jefferson, Lewis, Oneida and Oswego Counties.

Tug Hill Tomorrow provides conservation planning, land registry and land protection programs for landowners. The local land trust also works to increase the awareness, appreciation and stewardship of the Tug Hill region through publications, field trips, special events and community programs for kids and their families. For more information visit www.TugHillTomorrowLandTrust.org, email tughilloutreach@nnyemail.com, call 315.779.2239 or write PO Box 6063, Watertown NY 13601.
