Itching to Get Out for Some Winter Fun?

Bring your friends and family and join Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust on our upcoming snowshoe hike! The perfect opportunity to explore the winter woods, we will be hiking one of our protected properties in West Turin on Sunday, March 13th from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m.

Landowners Al and Barb Weiman will lead us on an excursion over the hills and through the woods of their West Turin property. The tour ends with a beautiful view of the East Branch of Fish Creek. Difficulty level is easy to moderate with some uphill hiking. Once the snowshoe is done everyone is invited to warm up by the fire with hot chocolate.

Plan to meet at the Nice n' Easy located at 3033 State Route 26 in Constableville at 1:00 p.m. and from there travel to the starting location. What to wear: sturdy winter boots and warm clothing. What to bring: snowshoes, water, snacks, and your camera to capture the gorgeous views of woods and Fish Creek.

If you would like to borrow snowshoes, we have a limited number available in both child and adult sizes. Please call ahead or email to reserve a pair for the hike. We look forward to exploring the winter woodlands with you!
