2025 ANNUAL REPORT & HIGHLIGHTS

OUR IMPACT

Thanks to you As a community-supported conservation organization, you, our donors, partners, landowners, and volunteers are what makes it all possible.

31 Tug Hill Explorer Backpacks

Distributed to 16 local libraries, helping connect more children and families with the outdoors.

Volunteer

788
Hours donated

599
Trail Stewardship Hours

189
Program Support Hours

Helping maintain trails, lead programs, and create meaningful outdoor experiences for the community.

Land Conservation

956.55

ACRES Conserved through six new conservation easements. Permanently protecting...

WORKING FORESTS | FARMS | WILDLIFE HABITAT | WATER RESOURCES

for future generations.

Community & Education Programs

83
Community and Education Programs

1,435
Adults

1,291
Children

Connecting people with the Tug Hill region through hikes, workshops, school programs, and outdoor experiences.

Public Conservation Areas

Expanded public access to nature by establishing two new Public Conservation Areas:

40
ACRES

Dimon and Rhoda Benson Public Conservation Area

In Oswego County, the Land Trust's first public conservation area in the county.

103
ACRES

David E. Ramsey Independence River Public Conservation Area

Trails

14
MILES (Approx.) of trails across our Public Conservation Areas

Providing safe and enjoyable opportunities for hiking, wildlife observation, and connecting people with nature.