Give forever through the Community Foundation

A part of your charitable legacy may include a gift to support the "Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust Endowment Fund" in perpetuity. The Community Foundation provides an array of donor options to make giving efficient and simple. Loyal land trust supporters have the ability to maximize their generosity and help non-profits of their choice for years to come:

Bequests – Contributors may include a provision in their will naming the Community Foundation and the "Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust Endowment Fund." You may also create a new fund to support the organization that's of great interest to you. You may choose to give a specific dollar amount or a percentage of your estate.

Retirement Plans – This option allows you to truly maximize your meaningful gift. You can avoid taxes on retirement plan distributions by naming the Community Foundation as the beneficiary, listing the "Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust Endowment Fund."

Life Insurance – List the Community Foundation as the beneficiary and designate the contribution to the "Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust Endowment Fund." It is an efficient option that maximizes the value of your charitable gift and also allows you to receive a tax deduction.

Other legacy planning options include charitable gift annuities (CGAs), charitable remainder trusts (CRTs) and more. To discuss legacy planning or other charitable giving interests through the Community Foundation, please contact their office at (315) 782-7110.
